

Research and Improvement conference 2018

Event programme

Time	Agenda
9.00am - 9.30am	Registration
9.30am - 9.50am	Introduction and opening to the day Side-by-Side and Sue Harriman, Chief Executive, Solent NHS Trust
9.50am - 10.20am	Keynote: What would real partnership working with patients and families look like? Professor Catherine Pope
10.20am - 10.50am	Keynote: The Patient Advocate perspective on partnership working Derek Stewart OBE
10.50am - 11.20am	Coffee and tea break
11.20am - 12.20pm	Breakout session one: Cluster A, Cluster B or Workshop 1
12.20pm - 1.20pm	Lunch and poster presentations
1.20pm - 1.30pm	Breathe Easy Choir performance
1.30pm - 1.45pm	Solent Academy of Research and Improvement launch Dr Daniel Meron, Chief Medical Officer, and Dr Sarah Williams, Associate Director for Research and Improvement, Solent NHS Trust
1.45pm - 1.50pm	Awards Presented by Side-by-Side and Alistair Stokes, Chairman, Solent NHS Trust
1.50pm - 2.50pm	Breakout session two: Cluster C, Cluster D and Workshop 2
2.50pm - 3.20pm	Coffee and tea break
3.20pm - 4.20pm	Breakout session three: Cluster E, Cluster F and Workshop 3
4.20pm - 4.30pm	Poster award presentation and close

Breakout sessions

11.20am - 12.20pm

Cluster A (Ballroom 3)

Chaired by Ken Ebbens & Sarah Austin

Rachel Chappell

NEUROLTC Care Plan - myMedicalRecord

Ana-Carolina Goncalves

Quality improvement work can reduce rate of falls in dementia patients

Sam Burr

Empowering and engaging clinical colleagues in research

Nadine Booyens

Exercise programmes for hip control to improve lower limb movement quality during recreational exercise in youths

Cluster B (Richards Room)

Chaired by Jackie Ardley

Suzi Graves

A mixed methods study to investigate if unmaintained static air pressure in cushions affect the patient experience

Samantha Belfrage, Jenny Hardwick and Vicki Pennal

Changing health outcomes for overweight and obese children for better engagement with their families

Sarah Stephens

Standardising Community Emergency Department Team assessment of patients who have fallen

Clare Ryan

Life on hold: the lived experience of sciatica

Workshop 1
(Ballroom 3)

Side-by-Side:

Overcoming the challenges of working in partnership with patients in a stretched NHS

1.50pm - 2.50pm

Cluster C (Ballroom 3)

Chaired by Stephanie Elsy

Theresa Crowley and Thea Claxton

Tackling demand in Primary Care: Managing Musculoskeletal conditions more effectively through telephone triage

Dr Catherine Tuffrey

To Holland and back... clinicians and families together improving the journey

Cluster D (Richards Room)

Chaired by Francis Davis

Ana-Carolina Goncalves & Mary Ramsay

Our journey through research

Sue Green

What do people want to support them to manage enteral tube feeding at home?

Nicola Sirman and Emily Mason

Students going the extra mile

Workshop 2
(Ballroom 3)

Lara Bracher:

Baby watching: an early intervention model for enhancing parent/infant interaction

3.20pm - 4.20pm

Cluster E (Ballroom 3)

Chaired by Mick Tutt

Bethany Kelly

From research to practice: Getting the freestyle Libre on prescription for Southampton

Dr Emily Thomas

The effects of brain injury on self-identity and how identity reconstruction can be supported in rehabilitation from traumatic brain injury

Laura Merrett and Philippa Beckworth

Exploring the relationship between cognition and psychological flexibility in Multiple Sclerosis

Alex Millham

Making participation meaningful

Cluster F (Richards Room)

Chaired by Helen Ives

Pam Bailey and Luke Parsons

Challenger8: An early intervention physiotherapy course incorporating high effort and high frequency exercise to improve movement and function for people with Parkinson's disease

Lindsay Welch

Evaluating GENIE in the Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease service: A clinical trial and evaluation to ascertain patient benefit

Bethany Carter & Natalie Mounter

Auditing in a crisis: monitoring and evaluation during and after the 2014 Ebola epidemic in Sierra Leone

Workshop 3
(Ballroom 3)

Veronika Wagner:

Using 'Lifemusic' in a Mental Health rehabilitation setting - outcomes of the SAS Wessex Quality Improvement Fellowship and practical examples